Regional Roundtables: Advanced Social Thinking Seminar for Empowering Educators and Caregivers

Facilitator: Nancy Tarshis

This seminar is designed for those who are moderately familiar with the Social Thinking Methodology. If new to Social Thinking, please start by reading our free articles and access our webinars and on-demand learning at www.socialthinking.com.

We are packing our latest thinking into this seminar by consolidating core topics and sharing our most helpful strategies, tailored to offer a deeper understanding related to assessment, goals and measurement, and practical teaching tools. This course offers ample time for networking, sharing practical lessons and strategies, as well as engaging in robust Q&A sessions with the instructors and fellow attendees. This smaller, more focused seminar is designed to align with the school day, running from 9:00 am to 3:00 pm on Fridays only, in specific regions around the United States. Hosted by Social Thinking experts, this is a unique opportunity to connect, learn, and grow within a supportive and collaborative environment with others in your region.

Who Should Attend?

SLPs, educators, teachers, social workers, counselors, clinical and school psychologists, occupational therapists, behavior specialists, school administrators, parents, and/or caregivers.

Continuing Education Available - 4.5 Hours of Instruction

Each attendee will receive a certificate of attendance and a course agenda for their records.

We are proud to provide access to continuing education credit for: Speech-Language Pathologist, Educators, Counselors, Licensed Marriage and Family Therapists, ...and others!

Detailed Description

This new seminar is designed to hone your expertise in the Social Thinking Methodology and its relationship to building social and academic competencies. Building on the strengths of smaller professional learning communities, we've curated the content of this day to offer a deeper understanding of the latest thinking and literature related to social learning.

The seminar will offer ample time for networking, sharing practical lessons and strategies, as well as engaging in robust Q&A sessions with the instructor(s) and fellow attendees. These smaller events are designed to align with the school day, running from 9:00 am to 3:00 pm on Fridays only, and hosted in specific regions (see www.socialthinking.com/conferences to see all the regions offered).

The result is a unique opportunity to connect, learn, and grow within a supportive and collaborative environment with others in your region. Facilitator(s) will share real-life examples and case studies, offering opportunities to problem solve the many different ways one can effectively teach foundational social concepts inside and outside the classroom and home.

Focus:

- Gain a deeper understanding of Neurodiversity-affirming informal assessment tasks, observational tools, and student perspectives to determine which tools are a good match for teaching social concepts.
- Discuss ways to embed social learning concepts in Tier 1 classrooms and smaller Tier 2 groups, with a focus on social metacognition and its core role in academic competencies.
- Explore methods to measure gains through self-report tools, visual scales, and self-reflection, ensuring a holistic view of student outcomes.
- Understand how to consider varying social learning characteristics and social learning systems to write goals (and/or objectives) to reflect those goals.

Please note: Lunch is not provided. Venue is close to lunch options or bring your own.
